NABCA'S 21st Annual Legal Symposium Explores Alcohol Beverage Law and Regulation

Addresses it from the Regulator, Policy Maker and Beverage Alcohol Industry perspectives

ALEXANDRIA, VA (February 28, 2014) -- With topics ranging from Licensing and Regulating Internet Retailing to Refilling Growlers and Regulating Marijuana Like Alcohol, NABCA's 21st Annual Legal Symposium on Alcohol Beverage Law and Regulation invites discussions about current trends and topics.

Scheduled for March 10 – 12 in Alexandria, VA this is the only forum that focuses on legal issues from the perspective of regulators, policy makers and the alcohol beverage industry. Knowledgeable presenters and attendees represent government and industry perspectives. Several others bring an impartial view of key issues impacting participants.

The subject matter at this two-day conference is appealing to lawyers, state and federal regulators, representatives of the alcohol beverage industry and other affiliates. A planning committee made up of regulators, industry analysts and experts created an educational agenda that qualifies for Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits.
